[DESPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO JANUARY 24.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Steamship Subsidy.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—The Tribune's Washington special says: Well informed Senators hold the opinion that the steamship subsidy bill can get no favorable action at this session, and they think the time spent in discussing the subject will be without practical results. But if such a measure should get through the Senate, it has scarcely a chance of being taken up in the house. No member of that body ventures to expect the passage of the subsidy bill. The sentiment of Congress is strongly hostile to all schemes which look to National Treasury for aid. Nothing can be effected except by such compromise and combination of interests as is not likely to be brought about.

Louis Van Tassel, alias Livingstone, the noted forger, who swindled the Bank of California out of $97,000 in stolen and altered registered bonds, was brought here yesterday from New Orleans in custody of United States detectives.

The European War.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—Prince Henry of Luxemburg in replying to a dispatch from Count Bismarck, notices the pledge on the part of Prussia not to base annexations on irresponsible acts. He promises to investigate the alleged breaches of neutrality. This note was sent to the signers of the treaty.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 23.—An agreement is made for three match games between Jas. Dion and A. P. Rudolphe, for $1,000 a side. Each game will be signed to-day, Rudolphe having anchored Deery and Little to act for him. The day is not yet fixed on. Dion allows Rudolphe $250 for expenses.

James Gibbons, a barkeeper on Merchant street, fell down stairs and was instantly killed.

Much anxiety is felt for the safety of the ship Lookout, now 180 days out from New York, with a general cargo for this port. She has not been spoken since her departure from New York.

The fact that Van Tassel was arrested in New Orleans and been taken for trial to New York, creates considerable excitement here, as he is the party who got $97,600 in bonds out of the Bank of California, and Capt. Lees is now on his way East to bring him here for trial for that crime. It appears that he had been operating in New York before coming to this coast.

The total rain fall to date is 6.16 100 inches.

Frozen to Death in New York.

The New York Standard, Jan. 7th, has a touching story of want and suffering in the great city. Following is the finale of the story:

During the cold snap the children went out to beg, as usual, with their matches in their half frozen hands. They wandered up and down Park row in front of the Standard office, and down to the grid-iron. It was bitter cold. The half melted snow of the day before was ice, and everybody was in illdumor. The children resolved to cross Broadway and beg around and in this attempt they separated. Limpy, the little girl of five, disappeared among a throng of carriages. In vain did the eldest girl and the little brother seek for her; Limpy was not to be found.

All day the two children sought for pennies, but when the chill shadow of night came they went home without a single cent. Contrary to their usual customs, the woman did not beat them, but received their excusses in silence. The bitter north wind rushed through the broken panes, and hardened everything to iron. The mother and her babes crowded together in a heap, cowering under their rotten rags. The pitiless fingers of the cold followed them. "Closer, mes petits," said the old woman, and strove to impart some warmth to the little boy by hugging him to her wasted bosom. But

THE COLD CAME CLOSER STILL.

The woman muttered to them that she would find work on the morrow, and then they should be warm. "To-morrow I will get work," said she slowly, with a strange drowsiness creeping over her. The little boy whimpered his little legs were "so cold, so cold," and his mother drowsily hushed him. He shortly became silent. The girl had not spoken for a long time. They all slept.

In the morning the wind changed, and the snow fell heavily for hours. The woodwork of the roof had been used for fires long ago—save the beams which were too big. Through the rents and crevices the snow dropped in and covered the heap in the centre. It fell fast, for the holes were many, and at length wormed a winding sheet an inch thick over the stiff bodies of the frozen family. Whom else did it cover?

WHAT BECAME OF LITTLE LIMPY?

Limpy, the little girl, had been lost in the confusion of crossing. She had crept under a carriage, between the wheels, and being inextricably mingled with the crowd had been lifted up by a man with a hand wagon, who had put her in it and carried her to Chambers street, where he left her on the corner with her matches in her little blue hands; the cold burning her bare shoulders, scantily protected by her shock of brown hair, and the frozen snow nipping her little bare feet. She wandered on, full of rapture at the sights and sounds of Broadway. She sold no matches and thought of selling none, being all eyes to see, all ears to hear. There were grand ladies on the sidewalk, with little girls in furs and velvet and satin hoods. They were warm enough with and their nice mittens and gloves. She ventured to touch a blue eyed miss, gorgeously arrayed. It was soft and warm, and her little red tongue curled out in rapture. The owner of the mantle was too busy prattling to her mamma about her presents to know that an outcast had touched the hem of her garments. So Limpy walked eagerly on after the mantle, which was to her a perfect talisman. At last they came to the Lafayette Place, and the little girl and her mamma entered a large house. Limpy watched on the outside and saw the red curtains at the windows. She wandered up and down, occasionally receiving the tribute of a snow ball, from some passing boy, and offering her matches mechanically to passers-by. Night came, and the windows were brilliantly lighted, and in the house where the black velvet cloak had disappeared the parlors were ruddy with the glow of a coal fire. There was a table set with white napery and sparkling glasses. Some dishes were put on the table, and the family sat around. Black mantle sat beside a big jolly gentleman, with red whiskers, who carved a big turkey. Limpy felt hungry, but there was nothing for her. The dinner went on, and was finished. The curtains were drawn down, the shutters were closed and the scene was ended for Limpy.

At one corner of this street is a granite church with huge grey pillars. Around is an iron railing through which Limpy stretched her little body. She took refuge behind a pillar, and built a little fire with her matches. Lulled by the genial warmth, which lasted a little while,

SHE FELL ASLEEP AND DREAMED.

She was in a great house, and her father and mother were both there and her sister and brother. There was meat on the table and roast turkey and goose and fruit and candy and cake of all kinds. Her mother was sober, and oh, so kind! Her father jumped her up in his arms and kissed her. The hall got smaller and smaller, and the light fainter, fainter.

In the morning when the gay old policeman made his rounds he saw the dead body of a child frozen quite stiff. There was a pleased smile upon the wan features. The tongue was again curled out of the mouth—the little frozen silent tongue that would never more utter the plaintive cry, "Please, sir, to buy my matches." that never before spoke with so much eloquence as that to the rich and thoughtless and proud. What does it say to them now? What does the poet say—Thomas Hood, the poet of brightest wit and of tenderest heart!

"I dressed as the noble dress,
In cloth of silver and gold,
With silks and satins and costly furs,
In many an ample fold:
But I never remembered the naked limbs,
That froze with Winter's cold:"

CURRENT NOTES.

Work has been commenced at Winona (Min.) on a permanent railroad bridge to be built across the Mississippi, to cost $130,000, to be completed early in May.

On the 18th inst. the Little Emma silver mine in Utah was sold to the Bank of California for the prodigious sum of $1,200,000. It was owned principally by a family at Elgin, Ill., who a few months ago were in poor circumstances.

A movement has been started at Chicago to collect several cargoes of wheat and other feeds for the farmers of France. When collected, vessels will be chartered by the donors to deliver it. The Western farmers will be the principal contributors.

On the 19th inst. the Lincoln Memorial Statue, ordered by the State of Ohio, was unveiled in the rotunda of the State House at Columbus. Vinnie Ream's statue of Lincoln will be unveiled in the National Capitol at Washington in a few days with appropriate ceremonies.

The Virginia City (Nev.) Enterprise of the 7th inst. says: Chickens are now being brought through to this city from the Atlantic States at prices which will at once put an end to the California chicken trade. They can be sold here at twenty five cents per pound, which being about as cheap at beef, there will be no trouble of disposing of the fowls.

A dispatch dated New York, 19th, says Tehauntepec surveys appear to begoing on very satisfactorily. Captain Shufeldt and his party are in the mountains east of the Tarifa, and Lieutenant Commander Bartlett is at the headwaters of the Almoloa River. The problematical supply of water at the spot which Captain Shufeldt is now surveying, is a great drawback to the success of the canal route, and his present explorations will doubtless decide that point.

The census returns give the total population of the States and Territories at 38,730,390. This shows an increase of only 5,464,078 over the population returned in 1860. The percentage of increase is 22 per cent. The percentage for the previous decade was about 34 per cent. This decline is attributable to the civil war, which withdrew the manhood of the country from home, increased the mortality, lessened the natural increase and reduced immigration. Fifteen States now number over 1,000,000 inhabitants each, against seven of the same class ten years ago: and four States—New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois—now contain over one third of the entire population of the Union. Eight States, including those just named, and Missouri, Indiana, Massachusetts and Kentucky, contain over half the entire population.

The Evening Post (New York) of January 16th has the following: Information has come into our possession of the highest importance—that might embarrass officers if made public—of startling information which we have received by the highest authority, that affirms that a complete chain is woven round a certain individual, and of his guilt there is no question. The man is known and skillful detectives are tracking him, although his present whereabouts is not positively known. The greatest confidence is felt that he will be apprehended in a few days. In this connection it may be remarked that the man Fitcher, who came to this city and pretended to have valuable information to impart in regard to the assassin of Mr. Nathan, and his ability to arrest him within ten days, is pronounced as a visionary individual, if no worse, by those who should know him."

San Francisco Commercial Intelligence.

We collate the following from San Francisco papers:

We have ceased our dependence upon the East for canned fruits, vegetables and pickles, all of which are now put up here in great quantities, and of superior quality, being much preferred by our own people, as well as by residents in the interior, with whom a large and growing business has been established in these lines.

Exports by rail have seriously curtailed our exports by steam and sail via the Horn and the Isthmus. Of wool alone, we forwarded 6,000,000 pounds by rail. The amount of wool produced from all sources in 1870, was about 20,000,000 pounds, showing a marked increase in this valuable industry. Prices were remunerative, and the quality superior to that of former years, the breed of sheep being better, and subjected to more attention.

The decrease of $14,000,000 in sales of real estate shows that the spirit of speculation, which run riot in 1868-'69, has had its back pretty well broken. For nearly thirty miles in every direction from this city, the country has been platted and mapped into homestead enterprises, and every means known to art and ingenuity adopted for their disposal. Imaginary railroads connected them with San Francisco, and very large sums squeezed from other business to pamper real estate schemes. We have now arrived at that point whence a clear view can be taken of the field, and conclude that henceforth this species of property will assume a healthy and well poised reputation, based on substantial grounds.

In San Francisco there are 65 or 70 cigar manufactories. The number of cigars made is over 5,000,000 per month, or about 60,000,000 per year.

Receipts of Oregon flour have steadily increased in spite of the direct shipments from that State to China and Europe, of both wheat and flour, to considerable quantities.

Eggs have not touched as high rates as in former years, but ruled more steady in price. The receipts from Oregon have been unusually large and the quality much better than in other years. This has served very materially to depress our market for fresh California. The market opened in Jan. at 50c, but soon declined to 42½@45c. From February to June rates ruled in the range of 28@35c, advancing in July to 42½@47½; August and September, 50c; October, 56@65c; November, 62½; closing the year at 42½@45c. The rates for Oregon have been 5@10c under California. At this date the egg market is well supplied, and dull at 37@38c.

During the past year about five thousand beef cattle were slaughtered in San Francisco.

Our exports of merchandise by sea have fallen off to the extent of $3,000,000 as compared with those of 1869, the principal decadence being with New York; but we have also shipped $4,303,077 less of treasure, which leaves a balance of over $1,000,000 in our favor, besides which our Branch Mint turned out nearly $6,000,000, in coin, more than during 1869, giving an ample supply for all purposes.

It is now very certain that 1871 will show large augmentation in our steam tonnage. It is reported that Wm. H. Webb has consummated arrangements with Holladay and Bradbum for the establishment of a first-class steamer line with the Australian colonies, and that the initial steamer will commence regular trips in March next. The government of New Zealand has granted a liberal subsidy to the Company, and its example will probably be imitated by that of the United States. In the meantime, the Pacific Mail Steamship Company will probably be so auxiliated by our Government that it will be able to double its Chinese and Japanese service.

On the 11th inst. Gen. John A. Logan was nominated in legislative caucus for United States Senator from Illinois, by a vote of 98 against 31 for all others. No doubt he has been elected.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Bombardment of Longwy.

ARLON, Jan. 22.—The bombardment of Longwy is continuing, the garrison resisting well.

A Quarrel in Paris.

LONDON, Jan. 22.—Advices from Paris state that at the Council, Friday, Gen. Trochu announced that if his hope for assistance from outside the city should be disappointed, it would be his duty to surrender the city before the Germans destroyed the public buildings and fired the center of the city. The civil members of the city disagreed with Trochu. He resigned, but again accepted command after a hot quarrel.

Dispatch from Lille.

LILLE, Jan. 22.—Cambria had been summoned to surrender by 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Gambetta, in his speech, says France prefers eternal war to mutilation.

The Army of the North is rapidly rallying.

The Emperor telegraphs to the Empress that the latest estimate of the French loss is 15,000, including 11,000 prisoners.

The Germans refused the demand for an armistice to bury the dead before Paris.

It is said the garrison will not renew the attack because Trochu is apprised of Chanzy's defeat.

Other Military Movements.

LONDON, Jan. 22.—Gen. Treshow advanced from Beaugency, and, it is reported, captured the strongly fortified works of Toilles, Baliday, and village of Soissons. Five officers and 80 men were taken by the Germans. German loss considerable.

Hamburg and Bremen celebrated the Proclamation of the Emperor by firing salutes and illuminating the houses.

A Prussian Repulse at Longwy.

[illegible] The Prussians were repulsed [illegible] with slaughter. Their guns were [illegible] by the Belgian [illegible] The Germans are waiting for heavier guns, when the bombardment will become vigorous.

Miscellaneous Dispatches.

[illegible] Gambetta is being William's [illegible] and [illegible] Bismarck's [illegible]

[illegible] The bombardment of St. Denis is [illegible] The fort is almost silenced. There are several fires in the town of St. Denis, and also within the walls of Paris to day.

Reckless Valor of French Officers.

NEW YORK, Jan 23.—The Herald's [illegible] Versailles, of the 20th, says that in the recent sorties, a desperate attempt was made [illegible] French to break through to Fe. "They made an assault on the German entrenchments, [illegible] French leaders displayed reckless bravery, leading the men bravely, but without effect. [illegible] instances the French fought with a fury [illegible] heightened by strong drink and other causes. [illegible] all efforts of the leaders were in vain [illegible] French, after firing, turned and fled, throwing away their arms.

Paris Unsubjured.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—A correspondent of the London Telegraph, reports from Paris that [illegible] of the bombardment on the city has been the destruction of some old houses and wood-yards, and the German firing has been utterly harmless.

It is said Gen. Trauenzky with the 2d German corps, has left Versailles for Dijon to confront Gen. Bourbaki.

Provisions Seized in Paris.

NEW YORK, Jan 24.—The Herald's Paris special says the Government has issued a decree authorizing the taking of stores, provisions, wines and fuel left in the houses of those citizens who sought safety out of the city.

The London Conference.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—Bismarck having refused a pass to Favre, the latter asked it of the German military authorities who granted it divested, however, of all political inferences.

Several Plenipotentiaries to the Conference on the Eastern question have been instructed not to allow themselves to be led into a discussion of any question foreign to the programme already laid down for consideration in that body.

Cable Failed Again.

ST. JOHNS, N. B., Jan. 24.—The cable between Placentia and St. Pierre failed yesterday. It will be repaired as soon as possible.

Skirmishing about Dijon.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—Advices from Lille of the 23d say Gambetta received a telegram stating that the Garibaldians gained a victory on Sunday, near Dijon, the enemy abandoning their strong position. The Prussians were retreating, pursued.

Faidherbe lost no artillery or prisoners in the battle at St. Quentin—only stragglers. Gambetta left Lille to-night.

French Losses in Recent Sorties.

PARIS, Jan. 22.—It is said that losses by sorties are under 3,000.

News by way of London.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—This evening advices from Lille to the 23d, says the bombardment of Cambria has commenced. There was a long council of war under the presidency of Gambetta. Gen. Robin was dismissed from the army of the North on arriving at Arras. Donay and Lille are totally discouraged. Lille is indignant against Gambetta. The bombardment of Longwy continues incessantly. The fortress replies feebly.

The Emperor William, in a letter to the Grand Duke of Baden, says Germany, which has become strong through the unity of her Princes and people, has recovered her former position in the council of nations. Germany neither wants nor is inclined to transgress her frontiers. She seeks only independence and mutual advancement, and the welfare of the nation by the extension of her commerce.

WASHINGTON CITY.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Notwithstanding the approaching end of the session and hostility of the House to such measures, there is no abatement of the steady flow of land grabbing and subsidy bills that come in for reference to the committee. A batch of bills was introduced yesterday, and among them five land grab measures.

One proposes to make a larger grab than any bill during the present Congress, introduced by Price of Georgia, to give ten million acres in aid of the construction of the Atlantic and G. W. Canal, to connect the waters of the Tennessee river with the coast, to give water transportation to the Gulf of Mexico by way of that river and the Alabama, and also to connect the Tennessee with the Chattahoochee and Ocmulgee rivers.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 25, 1871.

Mountain Peaks.

Mount Rainier, "Old Tacoma," has heretofore been lifting his head modestly toward the clouds, grand in his magnitude and majesty, but not entering the lists to compete with his brothers and sisters for the honor of being regarded as the highest of Pacific peaks. That contest was carried on for some time between Mount Hood and Mount Shasta, and the other peaks were either silent spectators or took small part in the controversy. Mount Hood was at last forced to succumb, and to admit that the summit of Shasta does reach further toward the sky than her own.

But another competitor enters. Rainier suddenly claims the pre-eminence, and Shasta is compelled to hide her diminished head. It was stated a few days ago, in the San Francisco Academy of Sciences, by Professor Davidson of the United States Coast Survey, that Rainier is definitely ascertained to have an elevation of 14,444 feet. This is four feet higher than Shasta. Prof. Davidson last summer visited Washington Territory, and can be presumed to speak from personal [illegible] Rainier, therefore, is the highest [illegible] though it is still claimed that Mount Whitney on the southern part of California, is still higher. This, however, is very doubtful. No accurate measurement of its height has ever been made.

The vast bulk of Mount Rainier is calculated to deceive the eye as to its real height [illegible] much larger area than that [illegible] and unlike the latter, it does [illegible] a point. It is for this reason that [illegible] Shasta was deemed to be the higher peak though its altitude is much less than that of Rainier.

We may expect, however, that this contest for the pre-eminence will not be wholly abandoned by Mt. Cake, as will try again. If we only had an epic poem, or treatise in the spirit of Homer, giving a history of the contest between the [illegible] of our mountain peaks for the [illegible] of being considered highest in [illegible] and, with Indian or other mythology of the lower surrounding peaks participating in the controversy and adhering to their several favorites,—with the powerful, unseen, mysterious forces at work in the plot, so that we should have a great and awe-inspiring picture and yet see nothing clearly but all—this is impossible. An attempt to bring out an Homeric work in these times even if it were a tolerable imitation, would be extremely ridiculous. The subject we have indicated would, however, be worthy the chronicler of Olympus.

Swamp Lands.

In Horace Greeley's Recollections of a Busy Life there is a passage on the swamp land swindle which we may pertinently quote at this time, when a ring of Democratic politicians are trying to obtain possession of all the swamp lands of our State and of large areas of dry lands, under a thievish law of their own making in the last Legislature. At the time of which he was writing Greeley was a member of Congress and was on the Committee of Public Lands. He thus gives a brief history of the manner in which the act to donate swamp lands was passed, and of the immediate consequences:

> At last, there came along a meek, innocent looking Oregon, by whom we were mostly taken in and thoroughly done for. It was a bill to cede to the several new States such portions of the unsold public lands within their limits respectively as were [illegible] and unfit for cultivation, and then ordered to be sold, and the proceeds applied to the reclamation, by means, dams, etc. These lands, we were told, were not scarcely worth [illegible] while and reserved they bred fevers, ague, and all manner of sysmatic diseases, thereby keeping the lives of the pioneers, and [illegible] keeping good lands adjacent unhealthy and worthless. But once those swamp lands in the State would be in them relatively, on condition that they should sell them and devote the proceeds to draining and improving them, and enough dry would be saved, the neighboring dry lands would sell readily, and the Treasury be [illegible] once. There never was a bill relished better in men and I, for one, was completely duped. As I recollect, the bill did not pass at that session; but we reported strongly in its favor and that report, doubtless, aided to carry the [illegible] through the next Congress. The cession was a reckless and remediless transfer to certain States of millions on millions of acres of public lands whole sections of which had not [illegible] enough on their surface to accommodate a fair sized frog, while the appropriation of the proceeds to draining them, proved a fiction and a sham. The lands west—all of them that had standing water enough on a square mile of their surface to float a duck in March, with a good deal more bubble while never a shake of the ague has any pleasure been spared by reason of all the drainage done under the specious act.
> Our swamp land grabbers are however surely missing their mark. There are [illegible] classes to large bodies of lands here and there throughout the State but the State has not yet parted with the lands. It can have no use for them until they are surveyed by the General government and the wet lands segregated from the dry. In most of the localities where these claims of swamp lands are being made, this has not been done. Consequently the State had no title to the lands and the individuals who have attempted to seize them under authority of a corrupt State law, can get no title. The applications they have filed are worth no more than so much waste paper. But their conduct is instructive, inasmuch as it shows the Democratic disposition, on getting into power, to steal everything that can be reached in the State.

A Simple Remedy.

Under the caption of "Strange Figures," the Eugene Journal has the following:

> The assessor of the 12th inst. publishes a table showing the assessed value of property in the different counties for the year 1870 as compared with the year 1860. From this table it would appear that there is less assessable property in several counties than there was ten years ago. This, of course, is not the case in some counties and to one—Josephine—it probably is. But in a county like Lane it is well known that it is not so. The property in Lane county is worth more to-day than it ever was before, although the returns transmitted to the Secretary of State would show that the assessable property in 1870 was worth $1,351,051, while in 1860 it was worth $2,297,375. The people of this county know it, we are satisfied, want figures published abroad showing that they are poorer now than they were ten years ago, when it was not so; and some remedy for this wrong showing ought to be found.
> The only remedy now existing is in the hands of the county officials. If the people of Lane "do not want figures published abroad showing that they are poorer now than they were ten years ago," they should elect county officers who will see that property is rated at something near its actual value, and not reduce the valuation to a ridiculously low rate in order to cheat the State out of a part of its revenues and throw the burden on other counties. The remedy is very simple and is in the hands of the people of Lane county. Let them be honest enough to apply it.

The San Francisco Bulletin of the 18th says: "Only 106 Chinese arrived on the steamer America to-day—a fact which bespeaks the continued diminution of Asiatic immigration. The number of deaths alone is now much in excess of the arrivals, and the departures by sea and land are even more numerous. If this goes on, what is to become of the "huge-thighed" agitators, who have been making such a good thing defending the white race? Is the face of Ah Sin, so 'child-like and bland,' to disappear from our political game?" We commend this sad situation to Gov. Grover.

A bill has been introduced in the House by Sargent of California to enable Washington Territory to form a State government. It is claimed that the Northern Pacific railroad will give such an impetus to the growth of that Territory that by the time the preliminary steps are taken to form a State government and the question of admission comes before Congress, (which will require in the regular order about two years,) the Territory will contain 100,000 inhabitants,—an estimate probably which does not exceed the mark.

Gov. Haight of California has written a letter in which he admits that he is a candidate for re-election. This is more honest and straightforward than the usual course of Democratic politicians and place-seekers. Like Seymour and Hoffman they usually "decline," as the surest way of getting what they want.

On the 18th inst., the President sent to the Senate the following nominations: Binger Herman to be Receiver of Public Moneys at Roseburg, Oregon; J. J. Hoffman to be Superintendent of Indian Affairs for Washington Territory. Henry Warren, Receiver of Public Moneys at Oregon City, is also nominated for re-appointment.

The New York Tribune's Washington correspondent the other day spoke of Senator-elect Kelly of this State, as "a good debater and manager." The correspondent of course don't know him.

OREGON.

All traces of smallpox in Douglas county have disappeared.

E. P. Fitzgerald, of the Dalles, was in Omaha a few days ago his way home.

A woman named Davidson was arrested for drunkenness in Eugene City a few days ago.

A party has started from Eugene City to survey a route for a wagon road up the McKenzie river and over the Cascade Mountains.

The Eugene Journal, deploring the condition of [illegible] says: "Here we are, forty miles from a temperance lodge, with a whisky shop on every corner, almost, while the temperance advocates are away off in some backwoods place, where there is nobody to drink whisky and no whisky to drink, making a terrible ado about temperance. It seems that the temperance advocates ought to storm the "enemy's" works in that place or not at all, and spend all their force skirmishing in the suburbs."

The Salem Statesman: Not long since a young man [illegible] from parts East and not then very drowsy, was traveling by rail between this place and Albany. A band of cattle disturbed the equanimity of the engine and the engine gave some terrific shrieks to make them clear the track. This was the last incident the youth was aware of until waked by the shrieking of the locomotive at another place, this waked him up and he sang out, "Hallo Conductor! So you've catched up with things again, have you."

From the Roseburg Ensign: In this country [illegible] fresh butter readily commands 50 cents per pound. Eggs 2 cents per dozen. Potatoes [illegible] and scarce. No cured hams can be had at any price. All of this article was taken to Portland and sold for 14 and 15 cents, and at this season and during the holidays, 20 cents per pound. This might be termed "penny wise and pound foolish." We deserve all the harsh comments aimed at us, as would any agriculturist people who could not present a better showing than we do.

The San Francisco Alta has this: "One of the solicitors of the Police Court is James B. Newby, who hails from Yamhill county, Oregon, in which State he says he was born. He was employed yesterday by one of the fair sex to draw up a complaint for vulgar language applied to her by another party. On examining the complaint Judge Sawyer found that the offensive language complained of was 'D—— woman's origin wo man.' He asked Newby if he drew up the complaint, to which an affirmative answer was given. His Honor then advised the solicitor to learn how to spell words before he made out complaints. It is needless to say that Newby left in disgust at this unexpected and pointed judicial advice." This Newby is a pretension but grossly ignorant ass a chip of the old block—head up in Yamhill. Much of the "reputation" which Oregon has obtained in San Francisco comes from such fellows.

FOREIGN ITEMS.

The very Rev Henry Alford, D. D., Dean of Canterbury was a man of much note in the religious world died at London on the 12th January.

The Paris says that the resources of the Empress Eugenie consists of her private jewels, valued at 3,000,000 francs, which were sent over here about the middle of August, in charge of Prince Achille Murat.

The late Mr. Geo. Baird was tolerably wealthy for a Scotchman. His moveable estate is valued at £218,408, while he has "large landed estates in America." The value of the stamp on which the inventory is written is $67,000.

A scarcity of coal prevails in Germany, and is seriously on the increase. Derives from the want of labor in the mines, caused by the war levies. The expediency of employing some of the French prisoners as colliers is being discussed.

Baron Von Beust, in a speech delivered on the 18th, in the Austrian Parliament, declared that Austria can now accept the friendship of Prussia without any loss to her dignity, more especially since the relations at present existing between the Austrian and Italian Governments are of an entirely friendly nature.

The German authorities have established seventy-four post-offices in Alsace since the 1st of October. These establishments employ eighty-seven North German, seventeen Bavarian, nine Wurtemburg and eight Baden officials, twenty-eight assistants, fifty eight persons formerly French letter-carriers, and two hundred and eight country post-men.

The African diamond fever still keeps up. The last English steamer that arrived from the Cape brought diamonds estimated at £40,000 in value. A new diamondiferous track had been discovered and the old ones were keeping their ground. The digging now extend over 100 miles of country, and the population had increased to 15,000. One man had found two diamonds, valued at £120,000.

Advices from Versailles state that during the recent sorties from Paris the officers of the French troops were, in many instances, heard entreating the soldiers, for God's sake, to advance and face the enemy, but in vain; a general lank of courage seemed to possess the French ranks in almost all the recent sorties. They would advance to within a hundred yards of the German batteries, but their courage would not enable them to face the fierce musketry fire with which they were met and they were compelled to retreat.

SENATOR WEST.—The San Francisco Chronicle says:

> J. R. West, United States Senator from Louisiana, is an old Californian, and well known in this city, where at one time he was engaged in business as a merchant. He afterward was proprietor and editor of the Mercantile Gazette, and at one time connected with the commercial department of a daily paper. After the breaking out of the rebellion he was appointed Lieutenant Colonel of the First California Cavalry, was subsequently promoted to be full Colonel, and at the close of the war was retired with the rank of Brigadier General of Volunteers. He afterward removed to his native State, Louisiana, taking an active part in the controversies of the South, and has now been chosen United States Senator by the Legislature of Louisiana.

WASHINGTON FACT AND GOSSIP.

The Committee of Ways and Means of the House have agreed to report a bill making a uniform tax of $2 a gallon on imported whiskey, brandy, gin and rum.

Commissioner Pleasanton writes to a Supervisor that, on careful consideration of the question, he is of opinion that Sections 15 and 16 of the act of July 3d, 1870, does not authorize the levying and collection of a dividend tax upon dividends of corporations therein enumerated which have been declared within the five months ending December 31st, 1870.

The annual report of the Board of Indian Commissioners called the attention of the President and Congress to the present condition of the Apaches of Arizona, asking for a special appropriation of $30,000 to prevent a threatened war with those Indians, and inviting their Chief and a dozen of his braves to visit Washington. The President indorsed this proposal, and the House has voted the $30,000 required.

On the 8th, the House resumed consideration of the Legislative and Executive Appropriation bill. The amendment paying J. W. Douglas, late Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue, the salary of Commissioner for November and December was agreed to by ayes 91 to 90 noes. The amendment increasing the appropriation for the Bureau of Education from $45,000 to $60,000 was agreed to. The amendment increasing the salaries of Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court to $8,500 and $8,000 respectively, was agreed to. The bill was then passed.

On the 18th the Senate concurred in the House amendment to the Senate bill providing for refunding the debt. The bill, as it becomes a law, is as follows: Be it enacted, etc., That the amount of bonds authorized by the act of July 14, 1870, entitled "An Act to authorize the refunding of the national debt" to be issued, bearing five per cent. interest per annum, be increased to five hundred millions of dollars, and that the interest on any portion of the bonds issued under that Act or this Act may, at the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, be made payable quarter-yearly; provided, however, that this Act shall not be construed to authorize any increase of the amount of bonds provided by the Act to which this is amendatory.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Phineas W. Hitchcock (Rep) has been elected United States Senator from Nebraska for the full term of six years. He succeeds Senator John M. Thayer. Hitchcock was the last Delegate the Territory had in Congress.

The Democrats of California object to the records of the last session of their Legislature being used as electioneering documents in the campaign of 1871. As a matter of course, Republicans will do reverence to the feelings of their opponents and refrain.

Much opposition is manifested to Samuel B. Axtell as a Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress from San Francisco, because he spent his vacation in addressing Woman Suffrage Conventions. Is a man to be deprived of his recreation because he is a Democratic Congressman?

THE TERRITORIES.

Gov. Salomon of Washington Territory is going East. He will leave here by the steamer of Friday.

Maps of the proposed line of the Cheyenne and Helena railroad route have been forwarded to Washington.

Sixteen thousand tons of freight, exclusive of Government supplies, were shipped from Corinne, Utah, to the northern settlements during the year 1870.

It is claimed that Deer Lodge county, Montana, yielded $4,000,000 in gold during the year 1870. Deer Lodge City doubled in population and business during the year.

The Utah railroad robbers have been sentenced to thirty years imprisonment in the State Prison. Their names are Daniel Taylor, Daniel Baker and Leander Morton. That's the way to put 'em through.

The Central Pacific.

EARNINGS OF THE ROAD FOR FIVE YEARS—GRATIFYING EXHIBIT.

[From the New York Tribune, Jan. 3]

Messrs Fisk & Hatch, the respected bankers of the Central Pacific railroad, have just issued a gratifying exhibit of the business of that Company. [The reader will understand that the Central Pacific is the western, as the Union Pacific is the eastern, division of the great railway stretching away from Omaha to San Francisco.]

The annual earnings of the Central Pacific Railroad (completed in 1869) have been as follows:

In 1866	$ 601,941	In 1868	$2,303,787
In 1866	861,917	In 1869	5,670,852
In 1867	1,421,625	In 1870	7 920,706

Better still, the total operating expenses, since the first engine ran over the few miles of the road then completed, amount to $8,550,548, against gross earnings to the amount of $18,629,813; showing a net income of $10,079,265. If interest on its bonds be deducted from this balance, there remains a clear income of nearly $6,000,000. And of its earnings for 1870 no less than 65 per cent. accrued from its rapidly increasing local traffic. We consider the bankers fully justified in estimating the total receipts for 1871 at $10,000,000; and we venture to say half of this amount ought to run the road and keep up its track and equipment, leaving a net income (before the payment of interest) of $5,000,000, with a tendency to rapid increase.

In view of these cheering facts, we entreat the managers of the Central Pacific not to disgrace themselves and discredit their enterprise by attempting to repudiate or evade the payment of the accruing interest on the bonds loaned them by the United States. It is clear that they can pay; then why should they not? The Government has dealt generously with them; why should they not deal justly with the Government? The statement of Messrs. Fisk & Hatch that "it was not the intention of the law, nor the expectation of the Government," that they should so pay, but that the Government was to pay the interest as it accrued, and look to the Company to reimburse the greater part of it after thirty years, does injustice to their standing as bankers and as men. Their argument that "the amount involved is comparatively small, being now at a rate of not over $400,000 per annum," renders this attempt at repudiation as quality as it is dishonorable. Messrs. of the Central Pacific! you have ever had, and still have, our hearty good wishes. Be honest, and you can hardly fail to prosper.

THE WAR AND FINANCE IN GERMANY—HOW IT MAY AFFECT US.—The following interesting extract from a letter addressed by a well known banker in Germany, under date of December 20, to a New York City merchant, has been handed to a paper of that city for publication:

> There seems to be no end yet to this Prussian-French war, although the Germans begin to get tired; but when it is over I think there will be a very large emigration of Germans to America.
> In Europe money is very abundant now, because business in general is at an entire stand still, and moneyed men do not want to invest their money; but when the war is over there will be such a demand for money that the rate of discount will go considerable higher. France, Germany, Italy, Turkey, Russia, and even Spain, all want money, and if Prussia, while victorious, had to give a five per cent. loan at 92½, what will others have to do?
> The chances for America to sell a four per cent. loan at par, if ever there were any, (which I doubt), are over. Should, however, the war with France last four or five months yet, I think revolution will come in Europe. In such a case the capital of Europe will fly to America, and there will be a chance to issue a loan at a low rate of interest. When such a time does come, and I tell you confidently I am afraid it will come, then will be your country's financial opportunity.

OF PORTLAND, WILL BE GIVEN AT
PHILHARMONIC HALL

Lecturers:

REV. THOS. CONDON, Dalles	Jan'y 31.
MR. GEO P. RILEY, Portland	Feb'y 7.
REV. A. L. LINDSLEY, D. D., Portland	Feb'y 14.
REV. D. N. NESBIT, Corvallis	Feb'y 21.
COL. B. S. PARDEE, Olympia	Feb'y 28.
REV. P. S. KNIGHT, Salem	March 7.

Tickets for the Course, $2 00; Single Tickets, 50 cents.

The First Lecture of the Course will be delivered by the REV. THOS. CONDON, of The Dalles, on Tuesday Evening, Jan'y 31, 1871,

At 7½ o'clock.

Subject—"A Description of Three Stone Heads, The Country from which They Came and The Times in which They Lived."

The Science of Geology is assuming so much importance in its relations to Historical questions, especially to the Creation and the Race of Man, that every one should know something of its principles and keep pace with its results.

The Rev Mr Condon has given many years to the study of this, his favorite science, and can give more general information on the subject in a single lecture than can be gleaned by months of reading. He has made the Geology of Oregon a Specialty, and by his untiring efforts and at great expense, has collected a fine cabinet of Specimens, many of which will be on exhibition the evening of the Lecture. As a speaker he is plain, consecutive and comprehensive, and although he is obliged to travel over a vast field within the limits assigned, yet he does not disappoint by unsatisfactory brevity or evasive generalities. Those who heard him last winter need no other inducement to come again; and to those who did not we can promise a literary feast. ja24dtf

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 25, 1871.

CITY.

"MIGHTY UNCERTAIN."—"For ways that are dark" womankind when they try can easily bear off the palm. The following adventure matrimonial which is related in a letter from Albany dated yesterday, will explain: "Quite a commotion has been created in our busy little city by a recent elopement. A young and sprightly widow, who for some years past has cruelly persisted in breaking the hearts of numerous love lorn swains, became "engaged" some eight months since to an honest hearted suppliant, who afterward became the victim of certain slanderous reports, resulting in the breaking of the engagement by the bewitching widow. The jealous swain who had circulated the slanderous reports succeeded in ingratiating himself into the confidence of the susceptible widow, and to-day were to have been united in wedlock. Our jilted hero happening to hear that matters were going, proceeded immediately to the scene of action and demanded an explanation, succeeded in learning the nature of the slanderous reports, and happily proved himself innocent of all accusations; whereupon our widow broke her plight with number two, and married number one without an hour's waiting. You may imagine the chagrin of the would-be Benedict, but the verdict of the community is that the widow 'served him right.'"

A WOMAN'S NEWSPAPER.—Mrs. A. J. Dunniway of Albany, arrived in this city yesterday morning to ascertain what interest can be raised in behalf of the removal of the Pioneer newspaper from San Francisco to this city. Mrs. Dunniway, after her recent visit to California and the Woman Suffrage Convention, was chosen to the position of Oregon editress of that paper, and it was resolved to remove the "plant" to Portland, sufficient encouragement were offered in the way of subscribers and business. In case of the removal Mrs. Dun way will be, thereafter, one of the principal contributors to its columns. In the event of such a removal we will remove shortly to this city. We have little doubt that she will find business enough unless she entrusts the publishing business to some blockhead of a man. Women go for their own rights they generally get them.

COMPLIMENTARY CARD.—Very nearly all of the cabin passengers to this port per steamship Idaho, left the following complimentary card addressed to Capt. H. M. Gregory:

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 23, 1871.

CAPT. H. M. GREGORY—SIR: The undersigned passengers on the steamer Idaho desire to express to you, and, through you, to the officers and crew, their thanks for the uniform kindness and courtesy shown us on the trip from San Francisco to Portland, ending this day. The masterly manner in which the steamer was handled, the quick time run, fully testifies to, and it is the earnest wish of the subscribers that in all future trips the same success may attend you and those under your command.

[Here follow the names of the passengers.]

CALAMA.—Capt. Ingalls was up from Kalama, Wash. Ter., yesterday. He says that the railroad company have not put their town lots in market, nor indicated what the prices will be, although they intend to go on and improvements, company and build upon the lots they want, with the privilege of what the lots shall be put in market. A considerable number of lots are already occupied, and this month, and several other are stamping upon them, or preparing to build or have already built. Some are living in tents or in the open air, waiting for shelter.

LABORERS FOR KALAMA.—The steamer Idaho brought up twenty white men and sixty-seven Chinese laborers for the Northern Pacific Railroad at Kalama. The railroad company has contracted with the leading Chinese firms of San Francisco for 2,000 Chinese laborers for their work, and with the steamship company to bring them up in squads of 250 at each trip. That number was expected to come per Idaho, but by reason of some unexplained, only sixty seven were put at the time of sailing. The steamer also took up a large lot of tools for the railroad.

PERSONAL.—A. H. Morgan, Esq., of this city, who has just returned from a three months trip to New York and other Eastern States, reports that Oregon was taken wherever he has been, in every place about Oregon. Very many letters to obtain information in regard to our State. The Northern Pacific Railroad is an object of special interest, and will attract much attention. We are indebted to Mr. Morgan for a file of late papers collected by him at all points on the road on his homeward trip.

A SWITCH OF ED GLENNON.—We learned last evening from Dr. Giltner, who is attending upon Mr. ——, that the wounded man is doing well. It was then thought, at first, any reasonable amount of blood had been lost, but a pretty freely during Monday night took place, and yesterday the patient is said and slept well for a couple of hours. Symptoms are all more favorable, and unless some unforeseen, the chances for recovery are good.

DISEASED MEAT.—A man named L. Bigelow was tried in the Police Court yesterday on a charge of selling diseased beef. It was proved that he had lost two or three cattle by dry murrain; that he had a cow with a calf only four days old, which got down and could not get up again; that killed the cow, in that condition, and sold the meat in this city. The meat appeared to have been feverish. The Judge fined the defendant fifty dollars.

ARRIVAL FROM THE NORTH.—The propeller steamer S. Wright, John Hughes, Commander, arrived from Sitka and northern way ports, early yesterday morning. She brought the following list of passengers: Pat Brady, L Clark, E McIntosh, C Bellencritch, H Spencer, Chas Bushotts, Sergt. William Kapus, M Rudolph and wife, Private W K Lane, Father Sargent, P Naugh ton and wife, M Knapp, four soldiers for San Juan and seven soldiers for Portland.

PORT WHAT IS NEEDED.—We see by the papers that there are two vessels now en route for Portland from San Francisco, to load with wheat for foreign ports. This class of vessels seem to be the very best now. The barks Rosedale and Stella are the vessels mentioned. The latter is to load with Salem mills flour for Rio, Pernambuco or Cork, the former for Liverpool. On the 18th the bark Live Yankee cleared for this port to be followed shortly by the Whittier.

ELECTED TO OFFICE BY THE "COMING WOMAN."—The Chronicle's San Jose dispatch of the 19th, giving an account of the proceedings of the Pacific Coast Woman Suffrage Association, auxiliary to the American Women Suffrage Association, we learn that our friend Judge O. M. Denny of this city, was unanimously elected one of the nine permanent Vice Presidents of the Association.

SURPRISING UNANIMITY OF OPINION.—There are in this city about 10,000 people, big, little, old and young, black and white. Of that number, nearly 9,000 can talk. Of the nine thousand, not less than 8,000 have remarked within the last ten days or two, "Wet day." Very correct remark, too.

COURT MARTIAL.—The Court Martial which we noticed some time ago as having adjourned from Sitka to meet at Ft. Vancouver, will convene at the latter post to day. The steamer Wright brought down several officers and other connected with the trial.

SOIREE.—The regular monthly sociable of the Ladies of the M. E. Church will take place this evening at the basement room of the Taylor Street Church. A general invitation is extended to all their friends to attend. Admittance twenty-five cents.

HOTEL COMPANY'S OFFICERS.—At the late meeting of the Directors of the Willamette Hotel Co. (St. Charles), the following officers were elected for the current year: President, Charles Holman; Treasurer, Wm. Morton; Secretary, W. R. Morrell.

HARD TO RAIL.—Thos. Glennon was arraigned on Friday morning before Judge Lewis, for the whipping of his brother, Ed. Glennon, and held to bail in the sum of $5,000 for his appearance and the examination was continued till this morning.

THANKS.—We tender to whom it may concern, the thanks of that portion of the American Republic who go afoot on Washington street, for having awarded repairs to the cross-walks at the intersection of Second street.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Mrs. A. L. L. Skinner, of Hiawatha, Brown county, Kansas, wants to know the address of Wm. Dubose, who lost a boy named Willie, during the late war.

AMUSEMENTS.

ONE FINE THEATER.—"Faint Heart Never Won Fair Lady" was produced in a most excellent style last evening, to a large and enthusiastic audience. The farce of the "Married Rake" brought down the house with screams of laughter. The people on the stage never did better than last night. The same splendid bill will be repeated to-night for the last time.

THE SKATING RINK.—This place of amusement holds its way as a triumphant success. The merry crowd seem never to tire of the sport, and one may see there every evening faces that have been seen each night since almost the opening of the rink. This morning and evening the hall will be open for ladies and their escorts and this afternoon to the general public.

BENEFIT.—Harry Senate, late of the Wellington Troupe, is up for a benefit to-night at Philharmonic Hall. It is announced that a "host of talent" will appear, but we are not informed who the actors are, nor as to what the programme will be.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Rev. C. E. Anderson has announced a farewell sermon for next Sunday.

The receipts for city licenses for the quarter ending March 31, 1871, so far paid to the Auditor, amount to $4,873.

Several orders for building and finishing material have lately been received from Kalama.

Among the "personals" in town we notice Messrs. E. J. Pengra, J. B. Underwood and J. A. Odell of Eugene and Dr. Bayley of Corvallis.

The U. S. District Court will convene at 10 o'clock this morning.

The steamer Geo. S. Wright will sail for Sitka and northern way ports, at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

A REFORMATION.—Ed. Oregonian: The necessity of doing something to prevent the increase of crime and vice among boys, and to reform those who are already corrupted, has awakened the grave consideration of the people of Portland. The editors of the city press and the pastors of the several churches have called public attention to the growing evil. One of the pastors within a few months past again and again portrayed upon his hearers the urgency of the case and seeking both to enlighten and arouse public sentiment in favor of immediate action by historical and statistical illustrations of the evil, and the remarkable success of wise and parental efforts to reform its youthful victims. We regret that Dr. Hedley's words were unwritten, being thus delivered from laying them before our readers. It is a curious coincidence that Mr. Eliot chose the same text that Dr. Lindsley had used for his last discourse on this subject the previous week. A discourse was preached on this subject last Sunday by Dr. Atkinson, which many readers would be glad to see in print.

Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is no patent medicine humbug gotten up to dupe the ignorant and credulous, but is fully warranted as being "composed of rare and precious substances brought from the four corners of the earth, carried seven times across the Great Desert of Saharah on the backs of fourteen camels, and brought across the Atlantic Ocean on two ships." It is a simple, mild, soothing, pleasant Remedy—a perfect specific for chronic Nasal Catarrh, Cold in the Head and kindred diseases. The proprietor, R. V. Pierce, M. D., 133 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y., offers a reward of $500 for a case of Catarrh he cannot cure. Sold by druggists, or sent by mail for sixty cents.

We have heard no complaint of this kind of machine. We will warrant the Dr. Knapp's Catarrh Remedy will positively cure the worst cases of Catarrh in the first stages. Any case which discourages from trying it will pay $500 reward for a case that I cannot cure. A pamphlet giving symptoms and other information sent free to any address. This remedy is SOLD BY MOST DRUGGISTS IN ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

Price 50 cents. Sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of one or more packages for two dollars. Beware of worthless and miserable imitations. See that my portrait Stamp which is a positive guarantee of genuineness, is upon the outside wrapper. Don't buy this patent Stamp issued by the United States Government expressly for preventing counterfeiting, but my name and address, and the words "R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y." engraved upon it, and need not be mistaken. Don't be swindled by travelers and others representing themselves as Dr. Knapp. I am the only man in the world that has the knowledge and right to manufacture the genuine Dr. Knapp's Catarrh Remedy, and I never travel to sell this medicine.

THE GREAT
BLOOD PURIFIER.

As it is the BLOOD PURIFIER, giving rare vigor and health to the whole system, it is a certain cure for RHEUMATISM, SCROFULA, SALT RHEUM, and all blood diseases.

It completely restores the ACTION OF THE LIVER, and all the digestive organs, when disease arises from their derangement, and is a sure cure for DYSPEPSIA, BILIOUSNESS, TORPIDITY OF THE LIVER, DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS and URINAL ORGANS, radically cures SCROFULA SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS and CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS of every name and nature, and in short all diseases arising from impure blood.

It is the only known antidote for Mercurial disease, and is far superior to any Sarsaparilla or Blood Purifier yet discovered.

It is therefore peculiarly adapted for use by Females and Children, as a BLOOD PURIFICATOR and INVIGORATOR.

For Sale by all Druggists.

Mourning in Germany.

Letter from Munich, December 16th to a New York paper

The season for balls in Munich has not yet commenced, and from present prospects very little gayety can be anticipated here this winter, as almost every house here is mourning some beloved one The Bavarian ladies are very sympathetic, and the most of their time is given to the soldiers The chief social entertainments in fashionable circles are musical re-unions, and to these the ladies all bring their work and industriously sew for the army while listening to a quartette of [illegible] a grand overture of Wagner The [illegible] has set a noble example to the [illegible] women by devoting all her time to [illegible] enterprise She, with the [illegible] several entire regiments in this city There was great mourning last [illegible] when a telegram arrived stating that Jen Stephan had been dangerously wounded One of my friends was at the house of Frau Stephan when the sad news was brought [illegible] preparations were immediately made to receive the wounded General, and my friend spent two days searching for a Sister of Mercy but not as nurse, but so much as the demand of the army for the good Sisters that some of the "gray nuns now remains in Munich, and with the greatest difficulty was it obtained from a Sister of a different order a promise to spend an hour daily with the sick officer Almost every day one sees the sad spectacle of a military funeral pro[illegible]

[illegible] SENT IN THE CHILDHOOD OF JOHN [illegible] One winter night in 1709, the little [illegible] on waking, found the room so light as his first impression was that daylight [illegible] turned, and he called to his nurse to [illegible] up Having no answer, he put his [illegible] the curtains saw the flames above his [illegible] and rushed, terrified, to the door but [illegible] was there, and he climbed [illegible] the window, showing himself to the terrified [illegible] in the yard below The [illegible] alder, the terrible response, "There [illegible] time," the improvised [illegible] man raised on the shoulders [illegible] and then the awful crash of falling [illegible] to the child felt the welcome [illegible] dash [illegible] all remained fixed in Westminster with that distinctness which [illegible] with strong emotion, gives [illegible] stamped upon the mind, a sug[illegible] with [illegible] nothing in after life can rival [illegible] of [illegible] moment that the [illegible] ground, for he says it [illegible] snatched him and his preserver [illegible] not fall [illegible] upward We can easily see [illegible] lost sense of personal guidance which [illegible] to as Providential interference in the course of nature, took its [illegible] moment when the boy, still [illegible] the error of that escape, heard [illegible] the neighbors, let us kneel [illegible] thanks to God, he has given [illegible] children, let the house go, [illegible] that night. The deliverance was [illegible] ordained under one of Wesley's por[illegible] a vignette of a burning house, with [illegible] not this a brand snatched [illegible] and by Wesley's choice [illegible] his epitaph, when he be[illegible] dying, in his fiftieth year.

LAND DEPARTMENT.

OREGON & CALIFORNIA RAILROAD COMPANY.

Salem, Oregon October 22, 1870

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT IS MADE FOR information of all concerned

First—Congress has granted to the Company all alternate sections of the public lands designated by odd numbers within a distance of thirty miles on each side of the railroad, excepting lands to which a pre-emption or homestead claim had attached prior to the withdrawal by Government of the lands co-terminus with the first division of located line from East Portland to Jefferson, at 12 M. February 15 1870 The second division of located line from Jefferson to a point six miles south of Roseburg, May, 1870, and from the last named point to the California line 1870

Second—Persons who have no pre-emption or homestead claims to any tract of an odd numbered section can purchase the same from the Railroad Company at the Government price of $1 25 per acre in greenbacks and upon very favorable terms if they so desire by filing an abandonment of their claim in the U S Land Office, blanks for which will be furnished by the Land Agent of the Company Such purchase from the Company has these advantages over a purchase from the Government The party can leave the land if necessary, he can sell the land or mortgage it; he is saved the payment of lawyers or agents' fees and expenses of witnesses to go to the Land Office to prove up his claim; he can get his title perfected in less time and he can buy on credit at a low rate of interest

Third—No sales will be made by the Company until the land is listed over to it by the United States Land Commissioner and Secretary of the Interior

Purchasers are thus assured that the title they obtain is perfect
